Wines with power & character

Weissburgunder Ried Birthal

Elegant and balanced Pinot Blanc with mineral style & great potential

Region: Niederösterreich (Weinviertel)

Grape variety: Weissburgunder (Pinot Blanc)

Vintage: 2019 (various vintages available)

Vineyard: 50% heavy loam / clay earth 50% clay / sand
South facing. The mighty soil with a very good water supply produces top Pinot Blanc with puristic and mineral style!

Vinification: rigorous handselection in the vineyard, Careful destemming; the grapes were pressed gently and then fermented in cooled stainless steel tanks to retain the clean fruit character

Tasting notes: Shining straw yellow with green reflections and golden shimmer in the glass. In the nose a mix of apple and citrus flavors. On the palate pleasantly dry with fine fruit sweetness, on the finish elegant and harmonious with beautiful density and well-supporting acidity.

This wine is the perfect accompaniment to traditional slowly cooked caramelised pork belly, as well as fish, seafood and poultry.

Alcohol content: 13 %

Sugar residual: 2g/l

Total acidity: 6,4
